St. James's, June 17.

THIS Day the following Addreſs from the Juſtices of the Peace for the County of Middleſex, was preſented to Her Majeſty, by John Rotherham, Eſq; their Chairman, accompanied by a conſiderable number of the Gentlemen in the Commiſſion of the Peace for the County aforeſaid, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Buckingham, Lord Preſident of Her Majeſty's Council, and Lord Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum of the ſaid County.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace for the County of Middleſex, aſſembled at the General Seſſions of the Peace held for the ſaid County in June, 1712.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

AS we cannot but with all Gratitude applaud Your Goodneſs and Condeſcention in communicating to both Houſes of Parliament Your Royal Intentions, as well as the Terms upon which Your Majeſty may now make a firm and laſting Peace; ſo, we entirely confide in Your Majeſty's utmoſt Endeavours to ſettle it in ſuch a manner, as will not only tend to the Welfare and Proſperity of all Your Dominions, but to what is neceſſary for the Security and Benefit of Your Allies; as alſo for the aſſuring of the Proteſtant Succeſſion, as by Law Eſtabliſhed in the Houſe of Hanover. And we firmly believe, that all Your Majeſty's Subjects (except ſome few, miſled by Self-Intereſt or Ambition) will heartily join with Us, in moſt humbly praying Your Majeſty, to perfect and finiſh ſo Difficult, ſo Great, and ſo Good a Work, to make Peace and War being the undoubted Prerogative of the Crown.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very Graciouſly, and to return the following moſt Gracious Anſwer.

I Give you Thanks for this Addreſs; which confirms in me the good Opinion I have of your Zeal and Prudence on all Occaſions, wherein you can be ſerviceable to Me or the Publick.

Genoa, May 23. N. S. The thirteen German Officers who lately arrived at St. Pietro d'Arena, are diſpoſing all things neceſſary for the Imperial Troops who are on their March for Vado, in order to embark on the Confederate Fleet: In the mean time that Fleet is ſailed for Leghorn to take in Proviſions, having firſt ſent in hither a French Prize and twelve Tranſport Ships, under the Conduct of two Men of War, who have Orders to follow the Fleet thither. A Courier is arrived here from Vienna, with Diſpatches for Barcelona, and he brings an Account of the Coronation of the Emperor, as King of Hungary; and ſays, that in his Paſſage he met with the German Troops who were on their March to the Milaneſe. This Morning the Ambaſſador of Portugal parted from hence, being extreamly ſatisfied with the Reception he had met with here from the Nobility, and embarked on a Galley belonging to the Squadron of this Republick, which is to Conduct him to Civita Vecchia. On Wedneſday laſt a Catalan Bark arrived here in ſix Days from Barcelona, and brings advice that the Allies had taken Figueres and Cadaques, and ſeveral other Places which open the Paſſages into Catalonia. The ſame Letters farther add, that about thirty Neapolitan Veſſels were arrived at Barcelona, and brought Ammunition and Proviſions for that City. On Thurſday laſt ſeveral Ships belonging to this Republick came in hither, laden with Corn and Oil; among which there were two from Gallipoli, and two from Barbary, the Maſters of the latter report, that all the Privateers of Tunis were raturned home without any Booty; but that an Engliſh Privateer had brought in thither a French Ship laden with Corn and other Commodities, and that the Differences between that City and the Algerines were adjuſted.

Venice, June 10. N. S. They write from the Iſland of Zant, which is under the Dominion of this State, that in the Week of the Jews Paſſover, a Boy of ſix or ſeven Years of Age was miſſing, and on the Eaſter-Eve, O. S. was found dead on the Seaſhore, three Miles from the Town: The Greeks gave out that this Child had been Crucify'd by the Jews; whereupon there was a great Concourſe of diſorderly People who plunder'd the Houſes of all the Jews, and kill'd one of them; and it was fear'd, during the Tumult, that they would not have ſpared the reſt of the Houſes in the Town: But the Signior Erizzo happening to come into Port that ſame Day with two Venetian Men of War, he immediately landed five hundred Soldiers, who ſoon made all things quiet. The Jews give out, that their Loſs is very conſiderable, and that they will leave the Iſland; but it is believ'd they will be perſuaded to ſtay, ſeeing an exact Search is making by the Government, to find out the Chief in the Diſorder, who will be ſeverely puniſhed, that ſuch Diſturbances may not happen for the future. The Senate have reſolved upon the eſtabliſhing a Lottery to raiſe Three hundred and fifty thouſand Ducats, at the the Rate of Two Ducats for each Ticket: The Prizes are to conſiſt of ſeveral Demeſnes, Privileges, and ſuch like ſort of Advantages. The Magiſtrates of Health of this City, being aſſur'd, by repeated Advices from Croatia, that the Country was free from all Contagion, has reſtor'd the Liberty of Commerce, which was formerly with that Place, and the neighbouring Provinces. The Convoy deſign'd for the Levant is ſailed from hence with a favourable Wind. They write from Rome, that on the Thirtieth of the laſt Month, the Pope performed the Ceremony of ſhutting the Mouth of four new Cardinals, who were then in Town. The Ambaſſador of Portugal has notified his arrival to the Cardinals Paulucci and Albani, and the Envoy of that Crown has had an Audience of the Pope, to return him Thanks, in the Name of his Maſter, for the Promotion of the Inquiſitor of Portugal to the Dignity of a Cardinal. The violent Rains have ſpoiled all the Corn and Hay about Rome, and have been like.

likewise the occasion of making the Pope defer his Journey to Castello Gandolfo. We hear that Don Julio Visconti is arrived at Naples, where he is made Inspector General of all the Accounts, and is not to be dependant either on the Vice-Roy or the General.

Hamburg, June 17. N. S. We have an Account by Letters from Dresden of the Tenth Instant, that King Augustus returned thither the Day before, being in Daily expectation of the arrival of Prince Menzikoff, to concert proper Measures for the ensuing Campaign in Pomerania. It is reported there, that his Polish Majesty will not be at the Head of his Army so soon as it was expected, because he will be obliged to have a nearer and more watchful Eye upon Poland, in case the King of Sueden should make his return through that Kingdom. However all the regular Troops are already march'd out of Saxony, and in the mean time the Militia Guard the Frontiers and the Fortresses. The Saxon Artillery with its Convoy, are arrived at Wittenberg where they must expect Orders from General Scholten, before they can proceed on their March. The Squadrons both of the Danish and Suedish Men of War, being now in the Northern Sea, and in View of each other; and the Forces of each Fleet being almost equal, it is expected that some Action may happen between the two Nations. Six light Frigats and a large Man of War of sixty Guns are now equipping at Gluckstadt, in the Territories of Holstein; and it is given out that they are to make a Descent upon the Dutchy of Bremen.

Berlin, June 18. N. S. The Commissaries which the King had appointed to examine the Affair between Monsieur Blaspiel and Monsieur Gromkau, relating to the Office of Commissary of War, which was represented by the latter to have been in very great Disorder, have made their report much to the Justification of Monsieur Blaspiel, so that the King has been pleased to proceed no farther, but to bid him be more diligent for the future. The Swedish Secretary residing here has received a great Packet of Letters, by two Swedish Officers, who came from Bender by the way of Vienna, amongst them there was one directed for his Prussian Majesty, which was delivered to him by the said Secretary, but the Contents of this Express are kept very secret. Yesterday Prince Menzikoff, who has been at Dresden to confer with King Augustus concerning the Operations of the approaching Campaign, arrived at this Place from Dresden, and lodges at the House of Count Galofkin, who is the Czar's Minister residing here. It is thought he will have an Audience of his Prussian Majesty to Morrow in the Afternoon, at Charlottemburg. The Prince will make but a short stay here, having all things laid ready on the Road for his speedy Passage to his Command in Pomerania. The King is making strict Enquiry into the Management of his Treasury, and Monsieur Berchem, Director of one of the Chambers of the Revenue, having been found deficient in the Account of Money that came under his care, has been obliged to give a Caution of an Hundred and fourscore thousand Dollars.
